The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Monday June 14. to Thursday June 17. 1697.

Leghorne, June 3. N. S.

ONE of the Great Dukes Galleys arrived here the 29th of the last Month from Marseilles, and departed again the same day for Civita-Vecchia, having on board the Cardinal de Bouillon, who is going to Rome. The 30th went out of this Port an English Privateer called the John Galley, who the next day met with, and took a French Ship, the St. Anthony, Andrew Giobert Commander, laden from Alexandria, and brought her into this Port.

Warsaw, June 3. Most of the Gentry are now arrived, and lie in Tents about a League from this place; The Whitsun Holidays have given some interruption to the Proceedings of the Dyet; who on the 29th resumed their Debates about choosing a Marshal or Speaker; and there appeared a considerable Party for placing the Sieur Leszinski in that Station; To oppose which, was insisted on by others, that they should first inquire who were the Authors of the late Confederacy of the Army, and they offered to produce some Papers, by which it would be made out, that the Father of the said Leszinski had very much promoted it: This occasioned great Disputes and Heats, during which Reflections were made upon the Primate and Prince Lubomirski, for favouring under hand the said Confederacy, in order to obtain by that means the Crown for the Prince of Conti; The Marshal of the last Dyet, who performs this Office till a new one is chosen, endeavoured to moderate things, and at last it was consented to on all sides, that they should first proceed to the Election of a Marshal; But as yet they have not been able to agree about the Person to fill this Place.

Vienna, June 8. The bad Weather has retarded for several days the intended Siege of Bihatz; Three Regiments of German Foot, one of Horse, and two of Dragoons, designed for this Service, rendevouzed the 30th of the last month near Carolstat, and on the 31th marched thence under the Command of General Auersberg, to a Place called Unzowas in Croatia, where the Foot continued the 3d and 4th with the Artillery, by reason of the great Rains, but the Horse advanced several miles further, to the River Corona, to observe the Enemy; The Forces of Croatia were likewise drawn together, and when joined with the Germans, would make an Army of above 20000 Men; They had taken in the German Camp a French Ingenier, who came thither as a Spy. The Troops that are to compose the Emperors Main Army in Hungary, march to their Rendevous between Baya and Veras-Marton; and Prince Eugene of Savoy will leave this Place in few days in order to repair thither, having already sent away his Equipage. The Envoy of Moscovy prepares for his departure, intending to pass the Campagne in the Imperial Army in Hungary; and 3 Ambassadors from the Czar are shortly expected at this Court. The young Duke of Lorrain is gone to the Confederate Army on the Rhine, and the Emperor has made him Velt-Marshal of his Forces.

Francfort, June 16. The Confederate Forces continue in their Camp near Eppingen; We have yet no advice of Prince Lewis of Baden's arrival there; A Detachement of Hussars is sent from thence to join the Troops of the Allies which are posted near Mentz. The French are encamped at Lamersheim on the other side of the Rhine, except a small Body commanded by the Marquis de Chamilly, which lies near Worms. The Deputies of the Six Circles are now assembled.

Cologne, June 18. The Forces of Hesse are expected this Evening near Duren, in their march towards Brabant. Part of the French Forces which lay near the Moselle, are marched with Monsieur Harcourt towards the Meuse; and the rest to the Army commanded by Mareschal Choiseul. The Letters from the Upper-Rhine say, the Bavarian Forces had joined the Confederate Army; and that the Duke of Lorraine was come to Stutgart in his way thither.

Hamburgh, June 18. The Danish Forces opened their Trenches against the Homer Fort on the 11th Instant; the 12th and 13th they shot several Bombes into the place, and being ready for an Assault, the Governor desired a Parley on the 14th, and agreed to surrender the said Fort; after which the Danish Forces marched to attack the two other Forts lately built by the Duke of Holstein. The King of Denmark is returned to Copenhagen, and before his departure from Rensburg, promised, that these 3 Forts being demolished, he will withdraw all his Troops, and send them to their former Quarters.

Paris, June 17. An Express is arrived from the French Army in Catalonia, who brings an account, that Barcelona was invested the 9th Instant, and the Trenches were to be opened the 12th; That the Prince of Hesse Darmstat was entred into the Town with 11000 Foot and 1000 Horse, besides the Militia of the Country, which made up the Garison to about 20000, and the rest of the Spanish Army, being 5000 Foot and 3000 Horse, were retired to the other side of the River Lobrebat, to expect a Reinforcement, and to act, as opportunity might offer, in order to disturb the French Troops in the Siege, and intercept their Convoys. The Duke de Vendosme, who commands the French Army, is indisposed; and it must be expected the Troops will suffer very much by the Excessive Heats that are coming on; The Count d'Estree with 9 Men of War from Toulon, and the Galleys from Marseilles, are arrived before Barcelona; 'Tis said the Marquis de Nesmond is gone to join them; and that a Vessel is come in who met his Squadron on the other side of Cape Finister, directing his Course towards the Streights.

Brussels, June 19. On the 14th Instant the Mareschal de Villeroy came with a Body of 3 or 4000 Horse to view the Ground about Enghien, which occasioned a Report, that he would march that way with the Army under his Command; but he continues in his Camp at Lessines, and seems by the care that is taken to manage the Forage, to have as yet no design of removing from thence. Mareschal Boufflers is still encamped at Roeux; and Mareschal Catinat near Ath. Monsieur Vauban, the French Ingenier, was some days ago at Charleroy, and afterwards went to Philipville and Dinant, to view those Garisons. They have not yet begun to work on the new Fortifications designed here; but instead thereof a Body of Troops is ordered to cover this City.

From His Majesty's Camp at Promelles, June 20. On Tuesday last Major General du Bey, and the Prince of Wirtemberg Brigadier, marched from hence with 1500 Horse and Dragoons, to attack a Body of about 1000 French which were posted near Charleroy, but upon notice of the march of our Troops, they immediately retired under the Cannon of the Town, and the Major General came back yesterday Noon with about 20 Prisoners whom they took in the morning. The Troop of Dutch Horse Guards came this day into the Camp, having been hitherto Cantoned between Mecklin and Brussels. The Lunenburg Forces under the Command of Lieutenant General Ohr, are expected this night about Louvain; When these Troops and the 5 Battalions newly arrived from England have joined us, a third Army will be formed to encamp near Brussels; and we shall march from this Place. The Elector of Bavaria commands at Deynse; and the French in their former Posts near Ath.

Hague